MINOR SEMI FINAL

PENRITH PANTHERS 1
STANMORE HAWKS 0

Mark Fowler was at St George Stadium

The Penrith Panthers finally edged out an unlucky Stanmore side at St GeorgeStadium with a late goal by substitute Robert Wozniczka.

Until then Stanmore had looked the better side, and although the Panthers looked dangerous from set pieces it was the Hawks who showed the greater skill levels on a day where the wind played havoc.

Stanmore started the better of the two teams despite playing into a strong wind, and an early attempt by player coach Eddie Briscoe flew just wide.

Penrith's PAUL CLEARLY goes between NICK KAMBOUNIAS (17) and CON PARADISIS (18)

After eleven minutes Stanmore were unlucky on two occasions, when firstly Mike Gibson in the Penrith goal saved well from Con Paradisis, then the resultant corner was somehow hacked off the line after a strong Penrith header.

The Panthers gave their first indication that their corners, helped by the wind, would cause problems on 14 minutes, when Stanmore goalkeeper Paul Kyprianou could only push the ball out to Danny Hinton, who controlled well before smacking a shot goalwards. Kyprianou may have been hesitant from the corner, but was quick to get his hands up and push the ball over the bar to frustrate the nippy Panthers striker.

With Briscoe's prompting Stanmore looked dangerous, and were unlucky once again on 32 minutes. Peter Kypreos' shot was the only thing that beat Gibson all day, and when it hit the inside of the post it looked like it was the opening goal. To sum up Stanmore's day though the ball bounced out to safety, much to the dismay of the vocal Hawks followers.

Hinton was then denied twice in two minutes, and Kaan Davies' foray forward saw him belt the ball miles over when another corner was half cleared.

Flight controllers at the nearby Mascot Airport saw a round object on the screens for a number of seconds!

On the stroke of half time Gibson pulled off his second save, and it was one right out of the top drawer. Malcolm Adams looked to have given his side the lead, but an airborne Gibson got enough glove on it to deflect the ball onto the post and out.

The second half had less action than the first and both teams made early substitutions to try and get something out of the game.

One of those substitutes, Stanmore's Eddie Wong, looked to have given his team the lead just minutes after coming on, but his shot from an acute angle had in fact hit the side-netting.

Stanmore had been unable to convert all game, and on 77 minutes should have finally got the first goal of the match. Adrian Lara strode through the defence, but with just Gibson to beat he shot weakly wide. It summed up his team's day in front of goal.

On 80 minutes came the goal, but it went the way of the Panthers. A long ball found two on one on the edge of the penalty area, and the ball broke kindly for Wozniczka to prod the ball home from 16 metres out.

The Hawks piled forward and deep into stoppage time the ball broke to Nick Kambounias, who looked for all money a scorer when he smacked the ball goalwards. As with the rest of the game though Gibson was equal to it, stretching his large frame out and getting a solid block on the ball. Three special saves had seen Gibson earn his money once again, although he would have preferred a slightly quieter time.

Penrith Panthers: Gibson, Grima (Cleary), Hawkins, Davies, Wright, Tehliwec, Casserly, Higgins, Hinton, Astone, Picken (Wozniczka)

Stanmore Hawks: Kyprianou, Kambounias, Bolianitis, Shepherd (Wong), Lara, Markopoulos, Kypreos, Briscoe, Paradisis, Adams, Rositano (Morales)

Goal: Penrith: Wozniczka 80

Best for Penrith Panthers: Mike Gibson

Best for Stanmore Hawks: Eddie Briscoe

Referee: Nick Conditsis

In the lower grade fixtures at the same venue Penrith had both teams playing, but without the success of the first grade side. In the UNDER 21 match AC United beat the Panthers 3-1 to end Penrith's season, while in the UNDER 18 match

AC beat Penrith 4-2, although as this was a major semi-final it means AC go striaght into the Grand Final and the Panthers get another chance this week.

MAJOR SEMI FINAL

MANLY WARRINGAH 0
ST GEORGE 0
(Manly won 4-3 on penalties)

Paul Goodwin was at Hammondville Park

St George were full of confidence going into their semi-final match against Manly Warringah at Hammondville Park on Sunday, having already beaten them once and held them to a draw on the northern beaches peninsula.

The game was not packed with incidents, especially during the first half, and most of the drama came in the penalty shoot out stage, the inevitable consequence of two sides playing for two hours without scoring.

There were a number of corners forced and free kicks earned in the first period, but the only real chances fell to Luke Cairney who ran through to meet a Mark Brennan long range pass in the 21st minute only to send his lob over the bar, and a deep free kick at the other end from Alan Hunter that Danny Barbalace nodded just wide in the 26th.

The second half action was much livelier but there was no sign of a breakthrough.

Gordon Sutherland's probing in the

Stanmore's ACHILLEAS MARKOPOULOS tries to get in before Penrith's GARTH TEHLLIWEC.

47th minute saw the red haired midfielder steer the ball acutely across the face of the goal while in the 70th the same player laid on a good pass for Leo Carle, but the youngster blasted the effort well over the bar.

Moments before Kelvin Foster had seen a very firm header well saved at the base of the post by an alert Dean McCreath.

Danny Barbalace also had a heading opportunity go just wide after a cross from the right in the 71st while there was also a huge scrimmage inside the St George goalmouth around the same time that none of the Manly players could capitalise upon.

Foster's 89th minute fierce drive was saved at point blank range by Trinity Allen to keep the Saints alive and then in the 90th Alex Araujo at the other end sent a glancing header across the face of McCreath's goal following lead up work by Carle and Carter.

Extra time also produced some excitement for a crowd that had been kept back much longer and later than any of their number could have expected.

Damian Rosenthal made a burst upfield and laid on a nice through pass for Adam Townsend who bore down on the goal with conviction but Allen came off his line to smother the ball at the edge of the area.

Araujo had shots that were wide or firmly blocked by a sterling Dolphins' defence and both Rosenthal and Foster watched shots go wide in the last period of extra time.

It had been a mainly defensive battle with Carter and Verrender solid at the back for St George and Hunter and Walley giving nothing away for Manly.

Dean Harding was allowed little room in which to operate and the decision by Dolphins' coach, Tony Pezzano, to leave Rosenthal on the bench until the last few minutes of normal time meant a much more forward role for Townsend and a debut for Under 18 player Gavin Yates in midfield.

Townsend worked hard, but the Rosenthal-Harding partnership has been the key ingredient this year and without them firing Manly do have problems finding the net and so it proved.

In the shoot-out stage of proceedings St George won the toss to kick first and Paul Carter saw the first shot of the unfortunate penalty contest saved by McCreath, diving to his left.

Kelvin Foster then opened Manly's account with a typical strong shot before Ben Price's attempt for the Saints was taken down low by McCreath.

Danny Barbalace then missed his penalty chance, putting the ball wide, and the last three Saints' takers, Araujo, Verrender and Carle were all successful.

Manly gave Anthony Oppedisano the third kick and he beat Allen nicely, while Harding scored from his shot to pave the way for the fifth Manly kick stroked home by Alan Hunter despite Allen getting a hand to it on the way into the net.

That gave the Dolphins a 4-3 win on penalties and a berth in the Grand Final next weekend.

James Adamo.

Manly was right out of sorts on the day and never looked like doing anything right, an analysis that was emphasised in the 68th minute when Matt Carroll made it 2-0 for the Saints and allowed them to progress into the Grand Final.

It was a bruising encounter with several players carried off injured, mainly from head clashes and the game which had already started late came to an end an hour after the second half had begun, due to the essential stoppages for the medical attention to players.

A last minute equaliser by Trent Dunlop, who made his first grade debut against Stanmore a couple of weeks ago, allowed Moorebank to stretch their game against Stanmore into extra time and ultimately penalties. That goal cancelled out an earlier strike by Economidis.

The Moorebank side then kept their composure to go on and win the shoot-out 4-3.

PRELIMINARY FINAL PREVIEW

After their heroics in snatching fifth spot and then seeing off the challenges of both Illawarra Lions and Stanmore Hawks nobody can afford to write off the Penrith Panthers as qualifiers for this season's Grand Final, pairing with last week's winners Manly Warringah.

Penrith are a dogged, uncompromising outfit who have big defenders and slippery strikers so must be respected for their physical prowess and sharpness as a team.

They come into the game against last week's losers St George with few injury problems and no key players missing.

The same cannot be said for St George who lost Tim Preston some weeks back and Stefan Janic two weeks ago during the Stanmore match.

The injury to Preston which saw him have an operation last week that will keep him out of action until next season left the side with little attacking depth and a twisted knee for Janic which failed to respond to treatment last week further weakened coach Paul Carter's attacking options.

It is doubtful now of Janic will be fit in time and there will need to be a greater contribution from the remaining pair of Alex Araujo and Louis Dounis if Penrith are to be beaten.

With Mike Gibson in splendid touch in the Panthers' goal it will need something special to get the Saints into the big game next week. Janic scored all three this year against the Panthers, two at home in the 2-0 win and the equaliser at Nepean in the 1-1 draw.

Just where the goals are going to come from this weekend is a poser that Carter and his assistant Richard Lasek will be giving much serious thought in the days leading up to the penultimate hurdle.

Penrith's is a more all round team with an ability among many to find the net, but it is their solid defence that is their strongest asset. It may well be their best weapon again and a low scoring, but absorbing contest is in prospect.

ROUND TWENTY TWO SUMMARY

MIDWEEK WIN BY STUDENTS SETS UP GRANDSTAND FINISH

The two games staged the previous Wednesday ensured that the Sunday afternoon action was going to be fast and furious with every spot in the top four still, statistically at least, undecided.

At the bottom end Sydney District forfeited any slim chance they may have held of avoiding the wooden spoon and the relegation fate that goes with it.

District dipped out to University for whom ace marksman Rob Smithies and veteran striker Don Brown both scored twice in a 5-1 romp, with Chris Bowman getting the other at the Sydney University number 1 Oval. Danny Craven replied for District when it was all over.

Greystanes lost 2-1 at home to Belmore who were confident of climbing higher before the weekend.

Goals from Leon Alexiou and Jim Alipheris proved enough to give the visitors a convincing win and the late reply from Michael Grass was just that.

So the scene was set for a final Sunday when Hajduk Wanderers needed to win against Arncliffe, at Scots Field, in a game where the home side also needed at least a point to stay clear of the rampaging Sydney University.

And when on the same day and on another ground a few kilometres away, Fraser Park really needed only a point to wrap up the premiership when they entertained Mount Druitt Town Rangers.

Arncliffe tried manfully to stave off Hajduk Wanderers at Scots Field, but they could hardly have known what was happening across town at Blick Oval.

Hajduk got to the lead in the 15th minute from a Jack Costello strike, but were brought back down to earth by a goal from Robert Todorovski at the half-hour mark.

They regained the lead in the 70th when Shane Crampton lashed the ball into the net, but the 2-1 win did no more than confirm second spot for the visitors, but put paid to Arncliffe's semi final hopes in the process.

A nervous Fraser Park took the field, at their ground of the same name, but their normal attacking mode from the start soon saw them race to a 3-0 lead.

Sasha Talevski was perfectly placed to steer the ball over the line in the 4th minute after Ante Zizic had nodded the ball back from the byline in his path right in front of goal.

Hard working midfielder Anthony Smith then scored his first goal in two years when he netted in the 13th minute, breaking a drought all season which included numerous near misses in recent weeks.

Matthew Remondos then scored the first of his two goals for the day in the 26th before things quietened down a little and it wasn't until the 68th and 71st, when Talevski added two more, that the victory flag could be hoisted from the Portuguese owned and operated Fraser Park headquarters in Marrickville.

Further goals from Remondos in the 81st and divisional golden boot winner Matthew Zec in the 86th ensured a 7-0 win for the new premiers and a long night of celebration for the club and its coaches and players.

The was also on this day late improvers Hills United looking for another win to boost their stocks and fourth placed Hurstville still in need of points to stay in the semis, even though their game against Sydney District looked a foregone conclusion.

Hurstville were probably the more apprehensive of the top four contenders, taking an eternity to subdue bottom dogs Sydney District who had already been relegated.

After a scoreless first period Hurstville broke through at last in the 53rd when Con Kottakis went on a mazy run through the District defence to go on and beat Leo Espinoza with a left sided finish.

Captain Bob Barisic ensured the win with a second goal 12 minutes later, a header after a free kick had seen the ball played forward from deep. Sydney University made sure that if it came down to goal difference they would not miss out by hammering Belmore 8-2 after being four up at half time. Ace marksman Rob Smithies got a hat trick inside 50 minutes before being substituted, but the loss by Arncliffe meant they secured the fourth spot on points rather than merely an excess of goals.

It was an even first twenty minutes at the usually breezy Blick Oval and while the students had a good deal of possession their keeper Matt Craw was twice called upon to avert danger when the speedy striking pairing of George Ganiatsas and Leon Alexiou raided quickly, the alert custodian leaving his goalmouth to boot clear.

In the 20th ace striker Rob Smithies scored the first of his three for the day when he turned smartly on the edge of the box and smashed fierce left footer past Theodoulou in the Belmore goal.

A long ball played for Luke McDougall from wide on the right by Smithies, who showed commendable vision, led to a cross which David Gill turned into goal with a near post volley for a 2-0 lead in the 25th.

Smithies grabbed the third in the 30th when he lifted a header over the keeper 10 yards out after a free kick had been floated in by Richie McIntyre.

McDougall got the fourth when he met a deep corner from the right by Chris Bowman with a looping header that beat replacement keeper Tritsaris, who had come on for the indisposed Theodoulou moments earlier.

Gill made a sustained run from deep to go on and beat the keeper in the 43rd, before Smithies pounced on a loose ball inside the area in the 50th, following a poor clearance out of defence.

A cross from the left by McDougall allowed Dan Felton to hit a firm volley past the keeper from 12 yards out for goal number six.

Belmore took advantage of a lull in concentration among the Sydney Uni team to score two quick goals, around the hour mark, Ganiatsas setting up Alexiou for a shot from 20 yards with a nice cross and then Alexiou returning the compliment for the home side's second by Ganiatsas.

A well formulated move in the 69th saw Gordon Pitt knock in number 8 after three good passes had been strung together in the lead up work.

It was a fourth hat trick of the season for Smithies who wound up second top scorer for the season just 2 goals behind Matthew Zec of Fraser Park.

The game between Mount Pritchard and Hills United had little bearing on the points table for either team and it lost much of its intensity as a consequence.

Early pressure from the Mounties was absorbed by Hills who then were awarded a penalty kick on the 7th min after Omar Makki had been brought down inside the area.

Omar converted the kick himself.

A move down the left by the Mounties eventually saw them finish it off with a goal by Martin Canova in the 21st min to make it 1-1.

In the 29th minute Rick Moscato crossed from the right to an unmarked Mario Galatola at the far post, but the Hills' striker was unable to finish the move with the goal fully exposed.

At the 35 minute mark Galatola, after holding the ball up, laid it back to Shane Coombes who curled a shot from 25 yards out, only to hit the left hand upright. Minutes later Chris Morton blasted one over the bar following a goalmouth scramble and at half time the game was evenly poised.

The game picked up some pace after the interval with both teams having long range shots just clearing the bar.

The first chance of this period fell to Robert Campagna who, after dribbling the ball from the half way line, was denied by Matt Darwen inside the penalty area with a finger-tip save.

At the other end Abbie Alamedine was forced to pull out a number of big saves as well to keep Hills in the game.

Mt. Pritchard scored their winner from a through ball to a player who Hills defenders felt was in an offside position, but Frank Di Filippo, who scored with the header in the 84th min from a well delivered cross, took his chance well when the flag stayed down.

Hills had a few more chances but could not convert and their season drew to a close with them just far enough off the bottom to escape relegation in a difficult year for them.

SEMI FINALS PREVIEW

Two very interesting semi-finals this weekend, with Saturday's game at Hajduk Stadium spelling the end for one of the two teams contesting it.

Sydney University and Hurstville ZSC meet at the St Johns Park ground with very little between them on paper.

The Uni boys are in fine goalscoring fettle having netted 14 goals in their last three games, including 5 by Rob Smithies. Hurstville are bound to try and keep a lid on the prolific scorer, but when the teams met at the start of the season there was no holding Sydney Uni who overwhelmed Hurstville 5-3.

In the return game two Eddy Bosnar free kicks was the difference between the sides, but with no Bosnar around to taunt them maybe the Sydney Uni side can make the most of their advantage to make their way into the next Semi Final.

Sunday at Popondetta Park Hajduk Wanderers and Fraser Park are at it again, the former hoping that they can avenge two 2-1 losses to Fraser during the season proper, but with Fraser full of depth and wanting to make swift passage into the Grand Final, that may be easier said than done.

The potent strike force of Zec and Talevski is a formidable one and Hajduk are still suspect in some areas. It all depends on the day how motivated each side is after the climax to the season last weekend.

A Hajduk win is overdue, but if they get it, it will be a narrow one for sure.

NEW SOCCEROO COACH ANNOUNCED

Frank Farina - Australia V Canada - Sydney Football Stadium 1993
Picture John Daniels, Sporting Pix

In what was described by Soccer Australia Chairman, Basil Scarsella, as a "new era" for Australian Soccer, former Socceroo legend, Frank Farina was named as the national coach last Saturday.

While not the first Australian-born coach of a national team (Joe Marston coached the Socceroos for a few B internationals in the '60s), Farina, 35 next month, is the first Australian-born coach of a World Cup squad and is living testimony to the development of the game in Australia over the past two or more decades.

Born in Darwin, but growing up in Port Moresby and Cairns, Farina was spotted quite by accident by then coach of the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS), Jimmy Shoulder, at a training camp in Brisbane in 1981. At that stage, he hadn't even made an age State team - something which he didn't consider unusual coming from the country.

After a year at the AIS in 1982, he started in the national soccer league where he played for the Canberra Arrows, Sydney City and Marconi. After the 1988 Olympics - and already an established 'star' in Australia - he moved to Club Brugge in Belgium, became the first Australian to play in the Serie A when he went to Bari, and then later to Strasbourg and Lille in the French First Division. He was considered one of the top strikers in Europe at the time he was there.

Three times in his career he was Leading Goalscorer (in Australia and Belgium); he was Oceania Footballer of the Year in 1988; Players' Player of the Year in 1987 and 1988; Most Entertaining Player in 1984 and 1987; and Best Foreign Player in Belgium in 1990.

He played in the 1986, 1990 and 1994 World Cup campaigns and in his book on his playing career published last year (entitled My World is Round) he rates the Socceroos' failure to make the World Cup as his greatest disappointment.

He returned to Australia at the age of 31 to "put something back into the game while I could still play at a high level" and joined the Brisbane Strikers. In his second year there, he was appointed coach and took the team rated 66-1 to be Ericsson Cup champions, only to see them tumble the following year through injuries to key players and loss of other key players from retirement. After an acrimonious end to his time with Brisbane related to non-payment issues, he returned to Sydney at the beginning of last NSL season to take up the reins at Marconi, and guided them to fourth. Many rate his coaching efforts with Marconi as highly as the Grand Final win in Brisbane, as the Stallions had crashed to 9th in the business end of the season and looked 'down and out'.

In a 363 League game career, he scored 167 League goals (excludes domestic and European Cup competition). He represented Australia 68 times and scored 20 goals.

Farina said on Saturday that he was "honoured, privileged and humble" to be given the three year contract.

"It's a dream of mine," he said. "But the biggest dream is one all football fans share in this country - and that is to get to the World Cup."

Note: Next week's Super Soccer will have an interview with Frank Farina.

Australia took the first step towards qualifying for November's under-17 soccer World Cup with a 2-1 victory over Bahrain at Bruce Stadium in Canberra.

Australia dominated the opening minutes of the game and took an early lead when striker Joe Di Iorio scored from the penalty spot after he was brought down in the box.

The goal brought Bahrain to life and within 12 minutes they had clawed back an away goal which could prove crucial in the return leg in Bahrain later this month.

From a free kick 30 metres out, defender Sultan Mahboob hit the ball along the ground to striker Husain Salman who turned his marker inside the box and hit the ball into the bottom left of the Australian net.

Australia then made it 2-1 in the 38th minute when captain Mark Byrnes, from the New South Wales Institute of Sport, headed home after Bahrain goalkeeper Hussin Sanad could only parry Gavin Hartge's first effort.

Australia now have a tough task to defend their slender lead in the return match and take the aggregate result to grab the final spot for New Zealand in November.

The David Carty and Peter Forsyth Memorial Cup for 1999 got under way last Sunday, with two games at Marconi Stadium.

The first game saw the Blacktown City Demons lose 3-2 to the Canberra Cosmos, the NSL team emerging victors with a goal twenty minutes from full time.

A weakened Demons outfit had taken the lead, before the Cosmos equalised. The Demons went back into the lead only for Canberra to once again equalise, before snatching the winner.

Blacktown's goals were scored by Brendan Salemah and Stuart Cleary.

In the other game two Super League clubs clashed in a repeat of this years Preliminary Final, when the Parramatta Eagles took on the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

It wasn't as close as that match though (when the Eagles won in extra time) but it was the same outcome, as Parramatta defeated the White Eagles 4-1.

Combined tables
Super Youth League

There's two weekends left in the Super Youth League regular season and no one is going to catch the Blacktown City Demons at the top of the table.

They played two rounds on the weekend and collected twenty-two points out of twenty-four possible, including a 15-1 win over Eastern Suburbs in the G13 competition.

Sydney Olympic are holding onto second place and collected twenty points from their two games, and Newcastle remain in third after also collecting another twenty points to add to their tally.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association also stayed where they were, in fourth spot, after taking nine points from the Sutherland Sharks, while Marconi Fairfield and the Wollongong Wolves are in fifth and sixth respectively, with just one point separating them.

At the bottom eastern Suburbs played two sets of fixtures but were unable to collect a point, meaning they will finish at the bottom of the Super Youth League Combined table.

Division One
Youth League

Most teams have just one round of matches to play in the Division One Youth league, and it looks like AC united will be the ones finishing first on the combined tables.

They collected fifteen points from their two matches, and have a nine-point lead on the Bankstown Association who collected eighteen points from their two games.

The next three clubs all still have two rounds to play, so Illawara in third are only six points behind the association side, and would have been happy with the ten points they picked up in Saturday's game against Rockdale.

Ryde City is just a point behind the Lions, although they collected seven points against Hills United, when another win would have seen them clear in third.

Bonnyrigg are in fifth on 169 points, followed by Penrith and then the Blacktown Association, who have three games still to play.

At the bottom Canterbury Marrickville collected the wooden spoon despite a four-point haul from their game against Stanmore, with the Fairfield Bulls finishing thirteen points clear from the bottom.

Division Two
Youth League

Congratulations to the Nepean Association, who finished top of the Division Two Youth League combined table.

They ended up with a two-point lead over Mt Pritchard after only getting three points for the weekend, while Mt Pritchard collected nine from their game with Hajduk Wanderers.

Indeed it was Hajduk Wanderers who finished third but they were some way back and the Ku-ring-gai Association were next after collecting six points from two wins on Saturday.

Macquarie Sports finished level on points with the association side but with an inferior goal difference, and they really made some ground up after collecting sixteen points from a possible twenty-four from their two games.

Mt Druitt finished sixth, with the Camden Tigers one point behind them in seventh.

Moorebank Sports finished bottom and collected two points from two rounds on the weekend, with CSI Schofields easily avoiding the wooden spoon despite only collecting four points themselves from two rounds.

Round 28 review

G13

There's just two weeks to go in the G13 competition, but there are still no signs of the Blacktown City Demons slipping up.

They notched up another two wins on the weekend, defeating Eastern Suburbs by the incredible score line of 15-1, a day after finding Sydney United slightly stiffer opposition, winning 6-0.

Wollongong are in second after they won 6-1 at Eastern Suburbs, with Sydney Olympic third. Olympic defeated the Macarthur Rams 5-0 before just edging out the Sutherland Sharks 4-3.

The Sharks had a better result the day before, defeating the Gladesville Hornsby Association 1-0, while Newcastle beat bottom club Central Coast 2-0 and then Sydney United 2-0 and are in fourth spot.

The Parramatta Eagles are next after they won 2-0 at Manly, while the Southern Districts accounted for the Southern Branch by the same score.

Saturday's other round 28 game saw Marconi Fairfield beat Leichhardt 3-2 at Marconi no 2.

G14

Sydney Olympic have an eight point lead at the top and a game in hand after drawing 1-1 with Macarthur but then winning their re-arranged match with Sutherland 8-2.

They lead from Blacktown who also picked up four points, drawing 1-1 with Sydney United before beating Eastern Suburbs 2-0.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association is third and won 4-0 against the Sharks, the same score line by which Leichhardt disposed of Marconi Fairfield.

Sydney United are fourth after their draw with the Demons and the same result against Newcastle, with the Breakers in fifth after two draws - 0-0 with the Central Coast and then a 2-2 draw with the team one place above them.

Parramatta Eagles defeated Manly 1-0 at Cromer Park, while it was easier for the Southern Branch over Southern Districts (3-0) and Wollongong over Eastern Suburbs (6-1)

G15

Blacktown hold a slender three point lead with two games to go in the G15 table.

They picked up two wins on the weekend, a 2-1 defeat of Sydney United and a 5-0 win over Eastern Suburbs.

Marconi Fairfield are in second after they won 4-0 against the Leichhardt Tigers, with the Gladesville Hornsby Association next after its 2-0 win over Sutherland.

Southern Districts are in fourth after their 4-0 win at the Southern Branch, with Newcastle in fifth after beating the Central Coast 1-0 and Sydney United 2-1.

Manly moved above the Parramatta Eagles with a 1-0 win, while Wollongong were beating Eastern Suburbs 4-2.

Saturday's other game saw Sydney Olympic defeat the Macarthur Rams 1-0, and in Sunday's re-arranged game the Sutherland Sharks defeated Sydney Olympic 2-1.

G16

Sydney Olympic can clinch the top spot in the G16 competition after they picked up two wins on the weekend.

Firstly they defeated the Macarthur Rams 3-1, before moving two points clear at the top with a 3-2 win over the Sutherland Sharks.

Newcastle are the team that is closest too them, and the Breakers kept the pressure up with two wins of the own, defeating the Central Coast 5-0 and then Sydney United 4-0.

Leichhardt is in third but saw their game with Marconi Fairfield washed out, while Blacktown in fourth defeated Sydney United 6-0 and Eastern Suburbs a day later 4-0.

Southern Districts beat the Southern Branch 4-2, while it was closer when Manly beat Parramatta 1-0 and the Gladesville Hornsby Association beat the Sutherland Sharks 2-1.

Division One Youth League

Round 25 review

It was a busy weekend in all grades in the Division One Youth League, with three games played on Sunday as well as six on the Saturday. It leaves just one weekend to go in the regular season - round 26 - to sort out once and for all who will finish where on the competition table.

G13

The Illawara Lions went into the weekend already knowing they had long since sealed top spot on the ladder, and they maintained their unbeaten run with a 3-0 win over the Rockdale City Suns.

The Bankstown Association made sure they should finish second after a 3-1 win over the Penrith Panthers, while third after Saturday's games was the Blacktown Association, who were held to a 2-2 draw by St George.

AC United sat in fourth after Saturday's games, their latest success being a 4-1 win over the Fairfield Bulls, while Bonnyrigg had it even easier, winning 5-0 at the Canterbury Association.

The days other game saw Canterbury Marrickville go down 1-0 to the Stanmore Hawks.

Sunday saw Ryde City entertain Hills United in a round 25 match and a number of re-arranged fixtures.

Saturday night's bad weather meant that the games between the Rockdale City Suns and Blacktown Association, plus the Illawara Lions and Bonnyrigg White Eagles games were washed out.

Ryde City and Hills United did play though, drawing 0-0 at Macquarie Uni, and the Bankstown Association ensured they would indeed finish second after a 2-1 win at home to St George.

AC United are third after their win on Sunday, a 4-1 success at the Canterbury Association, but the team they went above, the Blacktown Association have two games in hand on them.

G14

With leaders Ryde City not playing until Sunday, Saturday saw a number of teams move closer to the leaders - although none can catch them with just one game to go.

AC United remained in second spot on Saturday night after their 2-1 win over the Fairfield Bulls, with Bonnyrigg a point behind in third after an 8-0 win over the Canterbury Association and Penrith level on points with them after their 2-0 win over the Bankstown Association.

St George went into Sunday's game well adrift of the top four after losing 1-0 to the Blacktown Association, while Illawara and Rockdale shared the points with a 1-1 draw at the BHP Sports Ground.

Saturday's other game saw Canterbury Marrickville defeat Stanmore 4-1, while Sunday saw St George suffer their second defeat in two days, going down 3-0 to the Bankstown Association.

The Canterbury Association and AC United drew 0-0 at Punchbowl Oval, while leaders Ryde City notched up their twen-

G15

AC United had top spot wrapped up after Saturday's games, when they drew with the Fairfield Bulls 2-2 at Abruzzi Oval.

Despite drawing the only team who could have caught them, the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, went down to a 3-2 defeat at the Canterbury Association, while Hills United in third played their game against Ryde City on the Sunday.

Penrith in fourth went down to the Bankstown Association 4-1, a result which saw the fifth placed association side move to within a point of their opponents.

At the bottom it looked bad for Rockdale after Saturday's game saw them lose 2-0 at Illawara, although the only team the Suns can catch, Canterbury Marrickville, went down 3-1 at home to the Stanmore Hawks.

Saturday's other game saw the Blacktown Association defeat St George 3-2, while on Sunday AC won again, 1-0 at the Canterbury Association.

Hills United moved into second with a 1-0 win at Ryde City, while the Bankstown Association defeated St George 2-1.

G16

The Bankstown Association faltered on Saturday when even a point would have seen them clinch top spot, as they went down 3-2 at home to Penrith.

That gave the Stanmore Hawks a faint glimmer of hope, although they didn't really help themselves after being held to a 1-1 draw at Canterbury Marrickville.

The Blacktown Association were in third after Saturday's games after their 3-0 win over St George, with Illawara a further four points behind them after defeating the Rockdale City Suns 3-0.

There wasn't much scoring in the days other games, AC United and the Fairfield Bulls drawing 0-0 and the Canterbury Association defeating Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1-0.

Onto Sunday, and Ryde City moved into fourth with a comfortable 4-0 win over Hills United, but the Bankstown Association finally clinched to spot after defeating St George 4-1. The days other game saw the Canterbury Association defeat AC United 4-1.

Division Two Youth League

Round 22 review

G13

Saturday saw the Nepean Association finish their regular season in style with an 8-0 win over Parramatta City. The Association side ended up winning the league by five points, and a good indication of their strength was that they only conceded twelve goals in twenty-two games.

With three re-arranged games to be played on Sunday, the Ku-ring-gai Association ensured they would finish second with a 4-1 win over the Granville Association. Although a win on Sunday for Macquarie Sports would see them move level on points with the Ku-ring-gai Association, Macquarie Sports goal difference is vastly inferior.

Mt Pritchard knew after their game with Hajduk Wanderers, a 3-1 win, that they would finish either third or fourth, again depending on the result of Macquarie Sports game on Sunday against Moorebank Sports.

Mt Druitt finished fifth and also finished their regular season with a bang, defeating the Camden Tigers 7-2 at home.

The days other games saw Macquarie Sports defeat CSI Schofields 2-1 and Hawkesbury City come away from Moorebank Sports with a 2-0 win.

Sunday's games involve five clubs in the bottom half of the table, with Parramatta City definitely finishing bottom, and the Macquarie Sports game.

Sunday came around and the game that had the most important bearing on the table was staged at Hammondville Oval.

A 3-0 win by Macquarie Sports over Moorebank Sports saw Macquarie Sports finish level on points with the Ku-ring-gai Association, but finish third only on goal difference. The result also pushed Mt Pritchard down to fourth.

The days other two games had little bearing on the final table, Hawkesbury City finishing off with a 4-1 win over the Granville Association and Hajduk Wanderers defeating CSI Schofields 2-0 at Hajduk Stadium.

G14

The G14 competition went right down to the last game, as on Saturday the two teams at the top of the table had mixed results.

Mt Pritchard had the result they needed, a 1-0 win over Hajduk Wanderers, but Macquarie Sports, who could have gone into Sunday's re-arranged game just needing a draw, needed a win after going down 1-0 to CSI Schofields.

Parramatta City finished their season with a 2-1 win over the Nepean Association, who finished third after a surprise loss, while Hawkesbury City are one of a number of clubs in mid-table who also played on Sunday.

Saturday's round 22 game saw them defeat Moorebank Sports 5-0, Moorebank Sports finishing bottom after being unable to collect a point in their first twenty-one games.

The Granville Association defeated the Ku-ring-gai Association 1-0 at Parklands Oval, and the Camden Tigers defeated Mt Druitt 2-0 at Popondetta Park.

Sunday saw the big game between Macquarie Sports and Moorebank Sports held at Hammondville Oval, and it was the away side, Macquarie Sports, who came away with a 5-0 win and top spot ahead of Mt Pritchard only on goal difference.

The days other two games saw Hawkesbury City and the Granville Association draw 1-1 at Bensons Lane, and Hajduk Wanderers beat CSI Schofields 5-2

G15

Hajduk Wanderers clinched top spot even before they played CSI Schofields at home on the Sunday.

Saturday saw them defeat Mt Pritchard 4-1, so while Parramatta City did all they could with a 4-0 win over the Nepean Association, it wasn't enough as Hajduk Wanderers ended up with a two point lead going into their re-arranged match on Sunday.

The Ku-ring-gai Association finished third after their 4-0 win over the Granville Association, but at the bottom everything would go down to the three re-arranged fixtures on the Sunday.

Hawkesbury City went into the weekend a point behind the Granville Association at the bottom of the table, but managed a 2-2 draw with Moorebank Sports, to leave the two teams at the bottom on eleven points. The two teams would play each other on Sunday to see who finished last on the ladder...

Macquarie Sports defeated CSI Schofields 4-3 at the CSI Ground, while Mt Druitt edged out the Camden Tigers 1-0 at Popondetta Park. After the round 22 games came the re-arranged ones, and on Sunday Hawkesbury City made it four points in two days to move off the bottom, as they beat the Granville Association 2-1.

That defeat left the association side bottom of the ladder, as although CSI Schofields lost to the top team Hajduk Wanderers 7-1 they finished one point above the Granville Association.

The days other game saw two mid-table clubs, Moorebank Sports and Macquarie Sports finish their regular season with a 2-2 draw.

G16

Despite the other age groups having to wait for Sunday's re-arranged groups to settle most of the important issues, in the G16 competition everything was sorted after the round 22 games.

The Nepean Association had already clinched the top spot, and a 2-1 defeat at Parramatta City meant little to them.

The Camden Tigers finished second after a 0-0 draw at Mt Druitt, who finished third, while in fourth place Mt Pritchard defeated Hajduk Wanderers 1-0 at Hajduk Stadium.

At the bottom Moorebank Sports went down 3-0 to Hawkesbury City while CSI Schofields edged further ahead of them with a good 2-2 draw against Macquarie Sports.

The days other game saw the Granville Association defeat the Ku-ring-gai Association 3-0.

Sunday's re-arranged games saw a 1-1 draw between Hawkesbury City and the Granville Association, while Macquarie Sports and Hajduk Wanderers had 4-0 and 5-1 wins over Moorebank Sports and CSI Schofields respectively.

Cadet League Division One

Round 20 review

G11

There are just two rounds of the regular season to go in the G11 competition and leaders Canterbury Marrickville remained three points clear of Sydney United as both teams won 4-0.

The leaders entertained Parramatta City at Henson Park and finished with the comfortable win, while Sydney united went to Ryde City and won by the same score.

St George in third made up a little bit of ground after hammering the Leichhardt Tigers 7-1 and they had also picked up a point from a round 14 re-arranged match with the Parramatta Eagles.

With the Marconi Fairfield - Eastern Suburbs game falling foul of the weather the only other game played was at the Serbian Centre, where Macarthur downed the home side 4-1 to move up a place on the table.

G12

Leaders Sydney United can't be caught at the top of the table and the unbeaten team picked up another point with a 2-2 draw at Ryde City - a good point for the Gunners who are second to bottom.

Marconi Fairfield were in second but sat the weekend out as their game with Eastern Suburbs was washed out, so the Parramatta Eagles moved above them after winning their re-arranged game with St George 6-3.

St George then also went above Marconi Fairfield on the Sunday, the Saints bouncing back to defeat the Leichhardt Tigers 8-1.

In the days other game Canterbury Marrickville and Parramatta City fought out at 1-1 draw at Henson Park.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 25 review

G11

The battle for top spot will go down to this weekend's last round of the regular season, as both Macquarie Sports and the Illawara Lions notched up two wins in two games last weekend.

There's nothing between the teams, illustrated when both sides notched up another two convincing wins. Macquarie Sports defeated Mt Druitt 3-0 at Northlakes Oval in a round 23 re-arranged match and then beat Hurstville City 5-0 on Sunday.

Not to be out-done though the Lions also won a re-arranged match, beating Hawkesbury City 4-0, and then defeated Moorebank Sports 9-0 away from home.

Penrith are well clear in third but cannot catch the top two after losing 2-0 at home to Stanmore, and AC United remained fourth after defeating Hajduk Wanderers 3-1 at Abruzzi Oval.

Hills United inflicted Mt Druitt's second defeat of the weekend with a 2-1 win, and CSI Schofields did the same to Hawkesbury City, winning 5-4.

G12

There's just one round left in the G12 competition, and like their grade 11 counterparts both the Illawara Lions and Macquarie Sports picked up two convincing wins each on the weekend.

The Lions defeated Hawkesbury City 4-0 in a round 20 re-arranged match, then edged out Moorebank Sports 1-0 at Hammondville Oval.

Meanwhile Macquarie Sports defeated Mt Druitt 5-1 at home in a round 23 re-arranged match, then hammered Hurstville City 9-1 at home on the Sunday.

Stanmore have proved the team to beat for most of the season but Penrith beat them 2-0 at Kingswood Park, while CSI Schofields are still up there after their 3-0 win over Hawkesbury City.

AC United edged out Hajduk Wanderers 3-2, while at Popondetta Park Hills United defeated home side Mt Druitt 4-0.
